I want that one

WHAT a kerfuffle! Elizabeth Taylor looks like she's spotted another hunky husband at the Bafta Britannia Awards in Los Angeles.

Veteran actresses Liz, 73, and Shirley MacLaine, 71, did their best impressions of Little Britain's Lou and Andy, right, at the showbiz bash held in Beverly Hills.

CURSE OF THE IPOD FINGER

MUSIC lovers are getting "iPod finger" from using their mp3 players all the time.

Health experts say it is caused by changing songs too often with the wheel-driven controls.

Damage

And by constantly rotating the central dial to select a song from the thousands the mini-players hold, users are risking permanent hand damage.

Carl Irwin, of the British Chiropractic Association, warned: "This is a really serious problem. The action needed to move the wheel on the iPod is totally unnatural and effectively separates the joint in the thumb every time you use it.

"This causes inflammation in the thumb or fingers.

"In the next six months I expect to see a big rise in the number of people with repetitive strain type injuries."

Other modern gadgets have led to cases of Texter's Thumb, Playstation Thumb and TV eye, from too much telly watching.

AN old man went to the cinema for the first time in many years. After buying his ticket he decided to buy some popcorn.

As he handed over his £1.50, he said: "Last time I came to the movies, popcorn only cost 15p."

"Well, sir, you're really going to enjoy yourself," the attendant replied. "We have sound now."

A. BERRY, Lincoln.
 A GERMAN offers a prostitute £100 for half an hour of kinky sex.

The girl agrees, but is a bit cautious when she goes back to his flat and he produces four large bedsprings and a duck caller.

The German tells her to tie the springs to her arms and legs, and blow the whistle as they make love.

The girl finds this very strange, but does as she is told because of the money. The sex is fantastic.

Finally she gasps: "That was amazing, what do you call that?"

"Ah," says the German, "Four-sprung duck technique."

IRON MIKE IS BEHIND BARS

TROUBLED Mike Tyson was thrown in a police cell after a nightclub bust-up.

He allegedly shoved a TV cameraman and threw his equipment to the ground.

The former world heavyweight champion, 39, was arrested and spent three hours at a police station in São Paulo, Brazil. He may face charges of assault and destruction of property.

Carlos Eduardo da Silva, who was filming Tyson, said the ex-boxer also removed a videotape and pocketed it. Police chief Roberto Calassa said: "Tyson told him to stop and he didn't."

Temper

"He took the camera, destroyed the tape and damaged the equipment."

The arrest comes just weeks after Tyson offered to teach England footballer Wayne Rooney, 20, how to control his temper and avoid red cards.

KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY: Alex, centre, her sisters
 and little Charlie

Pictures: STEVE WATERS

3 SISTERS HAVE 1 TOT

SPECIAL GIFT:
 Alex is now the legal mother of Charlie

THRILLED Alex Patrick is now officially a mum ... of the precious baby produced by her two sisters.

Alex, 32, made a landmark court appearance yesterday to tell three judges about little Charlie, conceived from an egg donated by her twin Charlotte and carried in the womb by older sister Helen.

The judges agreed that Alex can be named as Charlie's mother. And the four-month-old tot will now get a new birth certificate.

Alex - who was unable to conceive herself after cancer treatment - said: "It was an incredible feeling to know, after all we've been through, that I am now Charlie's mother in the eyes of the law."

Joyful

"I wanted to go through the court as it wouldn't have felt right if it wasn't official. I needed that rubber stamp to put my mind at rest."

"I always knew I was Charlie's mum but it's good to have it confirmed."

The ruling by Inner London and City Family Court sets a joyful seal on the first UK surrogacy deal between three sisters.

A One Life documentary on BBC TV last month told how environmental officer Alex, of Woolwich, south-east London, was made infertile by treatment for cervical cancer. But her sisters were determined to help.

■ by NADINE LINGE

Twin Charlotte Pestell donated an egg that was test-tube fertilised with sperm from Alex's husband Shaun.

It was then implanted for older sister Helen Ritchie, 35, to go through the pregnancy and give birth.

Charlie - a bouncing 8lb 7oz - made his appearance in June.

Only one thing could now make Alex any happier ... a baby brother or sister for her wonder babe.

She said: "If Helen agreed to do it again, Shaun and I are definitely willing to try."

"I'm extremely lucky to have Charlie and two wonderful sisters who were willing to go through so much."

OZ TAKES TO STAGE

NOT content with merely deafening large parts of the world's youth with his heavy-metal Ozzy Osbourne has turned his hand to the stage. The Black Sabbath frontman, 56, has penned a musical all about randy Russian monk Rasputin. The Ozmeister plans to stage the work in the West End and on Broadway. He said: "It's something I've wanted to do for a long time. I've really enjoyed doing it. It's been a lot of fun. Nothing ventured, nothing gained."

JOE MOTT'S AWARD WINNING HOT

Edited by CARL
STROUD

MOTT

GORILLAZ have subjected themselves to their first ever TV interview. And naturally enough they fielded questions from a horse - Richard the Horse from T4's Popworld. Tune in this morning to witness this extraordinary televisual first.

SHOT

CHOP OF THE POPS...

THE Darkness have been forced to make last-minute cuts to their controversial new video.

TV bigwigs were refusing to show it. Justin Hawkins, 30, and his band flew to Iceland to shoot the promo for new single One Way Ticket.

But TV programmers were shocked at the footage.

I'm told: "Justin wanted the video to illustrate his song's strict anti-drugs message so they filmed scenes of banknotes being rolled up."

"That was too near the knuckle for TV programmers."

MOTT

THE Fugees have re-scheduled their UK comeback gig. They were to play Hammersmith Apollo on November 25, but have moved it to December 15. Their December 13 and 14 gigs in Manchester and London remain unchanged.

SHOT

Lisa flees to the UN

BAD news - Uniting Nations want to resurrect Lisa Scott Lee's career. Riding high with single Ai No Corrida, they have fallen for the inexplicable charms of the ex-Steps dancer, 30.

Singer Daz, 27, said: "The public loves a trier. We're the people to make her a star again."

EMMA'S A DELIGHT IN DENIM

GOODNESS. And you thought dungarees had been consigned the fashion bin of history. Well no. Brave Emma Bunton, 29, is taking a stand for the much-ridiculed and now little-seen item of clothing. And good on her.

This delightful image has been taken from the forthcoming 2006 Official Emma Bunton Calendar by World of Calendars Ltd. It's available at www.worldofcalendars.co.uk and at all good calendar retailers. Cold outside isn't it?

EMMA'S A DELIGHT IN DENIM

DODGY HANGERS-ON PLAGUE DOHERTY

BABYSHAMBLES are in meltdown as the fallout from their recent UK tour continues to engulf them.

Pete Doherty, 26, and his band were plagued by unsavoury individuals during their mammoth 19-date jaunt. And they've had a hard time riding themselves of hangers-on - some armed.

The situation got so out of control, the band's drummer Adam Ficek fled for three weeks after the tour ended in London last month.

I'm told: "The dregs of society all flock around Pete and his band now and it's getting out of control."

"Every town they visited on the tour threw up new problems as the local mafia descended

DANGER: Pete and Babyshambles

on the band and basically bullied them.

"When it finished Adam told Pete he needed a bit of time away from all the dogdyness as he was scared."

Pals fear it's only a matter of time before the trouble-makers cause serious grief.

One told me: "Someone will get badly hurt and sometimes we fear it could even end in someone getting killed."

"There have been demands for money and a lot of these characters have been flashing guns around."

Trusting

"Pete's a very trusting and open guy but, sadly, a small minority are determined to try and take advantage of him."

One ray of sunshine for Babyshambles is the release of their troubled, long-awaited debut LP Down In Albion on Monday.

Harry's Soul mate

KUBB frontman Harry Collier lucked out on the set of his steamy new video.

The dapper chap, 30, had to film sexy scenes with a scantily clad model on the set of Wicked Soul and ended up establishing somewhat of a rapport with her.

A spy tells me: "They really hit it off as soon as they clapped eyes on each other. There was a distinct spark between them." Wicked man.

SPORTING matching black shirts New Order are, thankfully, growing old disgracefully.

Kicking off with Ceremony within seconds Hooky, 49, was stalking the stage, wielding his low-slung bass guitar like a rod trying to catch the world's biggest fish.

Frontman Bernard Sumner was on top form too, punching the air to hits like Crystal, Blue Monday, Regret and Krafty.

Joy Division classics were also dusted down, with Transmission, She's Lost Control and Love Will Tear Us Apart. They're perilously close to picking up their bus-passes, but they're still as vital as ever.

HIGH FIVES: Peter Kay, Denise Van Outen and Kate Beckinsale, below right, have all made a fortune

WELCOME TO THE £5M CLUB

■ by MARIANNA PARTASIDES

IT must be magic! Harry Potter star Daniel Radcliffe has joined the list of mega-rich young Brits worth at least £5million.

Daniel, 16, Wayne Rooney, 20, Charlotte Church, 21, Denise Van Outen, 31, Kate Beckinsale, 32, and comic Peter Kay, 32, are among the young celebs who are beating off competition from traditional toffs.

All have clocked up fortunes of £6m, says the new Sunday Times Rich List. Singer Daniel Bedingfield, 25, and sexy model Sophie Dahl, 26, are now worth £5m.

One day they might be able to boast more brass than Sir Paul McCartney, 63 – currently the richest self-made billionaire, and fifth in the overall list.

David Beckham, 30, is listed at the top of the footballers' league, with £75m.

Former player Francis Lee, 61, has made £15m from loo rolls.

Retail tycoon Philip Green, 53, is the richest self-made billionaire, and fifth in the overall list.

Steel

Ex-miner Jimmy Heselden, 57, invested his pension in a new kind of sandbag – and now has £93m.

Still leading the rich list are steel magnate Lakshmi Mittal, 54, and Chelsea owner Roman Abramovich, 39.

RICHEST PEOPLE IN BRITAIN

1 LAKSHMI MITTAL: Steel magnate, £14.8bn

2 ROMAN ABRAMOVICH: Chelsea owner, £7.5bn

3 DUKE OF WESTMINSTER: Property owner, £6.6bn

4 HILARY WESTON: Head of food dynasty, £5.1bn

Powerful Pipe can clean up again...

THEY'VE every right to call the Paddy Power Gold Cup "our" race.

Trainer Martin Pipe and owner David Johnson have teamed up to land the Cheltenham showpiece five times in the last 10 years.

And today OUR VIC (3.20) can hit the bookies for six in the glittering £110,000 handicap chase.

The Pipe, Johnson combo also run the quietly-fancied Therealbandit but Timmy Murphy partnered Our Vic is the big hope despite some off-putting form figures. The seven-year-old failed to

Given a nice break, Our Vic has been jumping brilliantly at home. And 17lb pull should enable him to beat Bonusprint hero Monkerhostin.

Flyer has lift-off...

MOSCOW FLYER will face four rivals when he makes his seasonal bow in the Fortria Chase at Navan tomorrow.

The 11-year-old, trained by Jessica Harrington, below, suffered a surprise defeat on his last start at Punchestown in April when Rathgar Beau, who runs tomorrow, beat him a short head in the Kerrygold Champion Chase.

That was the first time Moscow Flyer had been beaten in 20 completed chases but he did take this event last season before going on to win again at Cheltenham. "It's all systems go for his comeback and he's been working away well," said Harrington, below.

"He went to Punchestown and jumped four fences for Barry Geraghty recently and he's also been to The Curragh."

The dual Queen Mother Champion Chase winner will not have things all his own way.

Dusty Sheehy, the trainer of Rathgar Beau, said: "He is ready to go and is in cracking form."

Hi Cloy was also confirmed as a runner by trainer Michael Hourigan along with Alwais, Central House and Native Upmanship.

Jumpin' boy Johnny

TOP FLAT jockey Johnny Murtagh begins his spell riding over hurdles at Navan today.

This year's Derby-winning pilot has three mounts at the Irish track, starting with Tomorrow's Dream for Curragh trainer Michael Halford in the opening INH Stallion Owners EBF Maiden Hurdle.

"I'm looking forward to it," said Murtagh. "I've got three rides at Navan and one at Naas on Sunday."

Halford, who retains Murtagh, confirmed the rider was ready for the new challenge.

"Johnny's well tuned for it and can't wait to get going. He has schooled Tomorrow's Dream."

"His first ride is for me but it looks a good race with Travino, Geill Sli and Forty Licks in there. Let's hope they come back safe and sound."

HAVE FAITH

Hobbs star has got that winning habit

TRAINER Phillip Hobbs can break Martin Pipe's stranglehold on the Paddy Power Gold Cup at Cheltenham this afternoon.

Pipe has won this prize seven times and he also has a lengthy list of places in the big race to his credit and his runner Old Vic is favourite to land the spoils today.

But I'm taking the Hobbs-trained MONKERHOSTIN (3.20, Ch4) to lead them all home in a race that always signals that the jumps season is now well and truly with us. Monkerhostin has tasted defeat only once in his four chases since joining the Hobbs yard two years ago and was a good third to Celestial Gold in this race 12 months ago.

Triumph

He then scored an impressive win over fences at Cheltenham over Thisthatandtother in the Bonusprint Gold Cup and won the Haldon Gold Cup at Exeter 11 days ago.

Monkerhostin is a good, sound jumper who travels really well and I'm taking him to triumph with the big danger coming from Our Vic.

The main worry about Our Vic is that his hasn't raced for over six months.

Lacodoul and Fondmort are both likely to be involved in the shake-up in a hot contest that should have the Cheltenham crowd really buzzing.

So my idea of the first four home in a top-notch race is 1 Monkerhostin, 2 Our Vic, 3 Lacodoul, 4 Fondmort. In the

EXCLUSIVE
by MICK

first televised races from Gloucestershire track, I like the look of STANDIN OBLIGATION (2.10) in what promises to be a very competitive handicap hurdle.

The combination of David Johnson and Martin Pipe are always formidable at this meeting and I really do fancy Standin Obligation to keep the ball rolling for them.

The ex-Irish gelding joined the Pipe stable earlier this year and took his winning run to seven before adding another success to his record on his handicap debut over three miles at Chepstow last month.

So it's Standin Obligation for me with the danger coming in the shape of Jackson from the Alan King yard who has already won twice this season. JACK HIGH (2.45) is a very decent ten-year-old who is heading for the Hennessy later this month and with the weight he has today stands an excellent chance of success. This resident of the Ted Walsh stable showed good form to finish a three-quarters of a length second to Numbersixvalverde in the Irish National at Fairyhouse in March.

HOBBS: Gold bid

He then rubber-stamped that form by winning the Betfred Gold Cup at Sandown the following month. He can come out top again today with King Harold posing the biggest threat. In the other televised race, I'm going for AFSOUN (3.55) who is trained at the Seven Barrows stable of my guv'nor Nicky Henderson.

High

He is a full-brother to another horse of ours, Afrad. He has done exceptionally well in the schooling grounds and can get high in the pecking order for the Triumph Hurdle.

There are also two TV races at Wetherby this afternoon where I really do fancy the chances of IMPERIAL DREAM (2.25, Ch4) from the in-form Harry Hogarth stable.

The Micky Hammond-trained FAIR SPIN (2.55) gets my vote in the two mile totocooop Handicap Hurdle in the other televised race at the West Yorkshire track.

INTERVIEW: KEVIN FRANCIS

TIME FOR ALAN

He can be King

ALAN King has his horses in great form, and I'm hopeful KANDJAR D'ALLIER can land the Paddy Power Gold Cup Handicap Chase (3.20) at Cheltenham.

The horse showed progressive form for King last season, having lost his way when first coming from France when trained by Milton Harris.

The seven-year-old was second to Buckley Lane in a 16-runner handicap on his last outing in January, having finished third in a similar contest at the track on New Year's Day.

Having previous sound course form is always a bonus at Prestbury Park, and Kandjar D'Alhier has a feather weight and is worth an each-way nibble around the 16-1 mark.

I've plenty of time for Richard Ford, and he looks to have an interesting sort called CHABRIMAL MINSTER, who on only his fifth start, jumped like a stag when coming home alone in a novice chase at Aintree last month. The eight-year-old looks a good thing to follow up under the vastly improved Graham Lee in the Matt Hanson Birthday Novice Chase (1.20) at Uttoxeter.

The bucket-and-spade merchants must think Crimbo has come early as there is action at Southwell, Lingfield and Wolverhampton.

Keen

My first bet comes at leafy Lingfield in the European Breeders' Maiden Stakes (12.35).

John Gosden is keen to leave Manton on a winning note before heading off to ply his trade in Newmarket, so I will be having a decent bet on CACTUS KING to open his account. This son of Green Desert has given some trouble at the stalls at home, but he seemed over the problem when making his racecourse bow at Newbury last month.

But the rains came down with a vengeance that afternoon and by the time Cactus King came under starter's orders, the terrain was like a bog.

Like most of his sire's progeny, he hated the tacky conditions.

On his last outing on this Polytrack, he looked like making all over a mile when turning into the straight with a healthy lead, but was touched off by Salt Man and Bull Market. I made a note to back Cactus King if dropped in trip and this shorter distance looks his optimum.

Well housed in stall four, I expect the excellent Jimmy Fortune to bounce him out and make every yard.

Fortune is then making the not so easy journey up to Wolverhampton, where he rides the progressive BURHAAN (9.00).

The three-year-old routed his field off a perch of 60 over course and distance last month.

Our old friend, the assessor, has hiked Burhaan to a new rating of 69, but when these young horses start improving, it's best to be with them until they are beaten.

HENNESSY HEROES: Connections of Celestial Gold celebrate last year's win

THE new look three-day Winter Festival, highlighted by the 49th running of the coveted Hennessy Cognac Gold Cup on Saturday, 26 November.

This heralds the start of another fascinating season of top class jump racing at Newbury.

The richest race of its kind in Europe with a prize fund of £125,000, the Hennessy (first won in 1957 by Mandarin) is the country's most important pre-Christmas chase with a huge betting turnover and remains a valuable early season target for some of the best horses in training.

Forces

It's a must see event for every jumping fan and you could be there as the winner of Star racing's simple and easy-to-enter competition.

We've joined forces with Berkshire's favourite jumps venue to offer one lucky reader the prize of a lifetime.

Our winner, plus a guest will be presented with badges for Newbury's exclusive Premier Enclosure and after a champagne welcome, will be treated to a superb three course luncheon with wines.

We've also laid on full afternoon tea and, just for good measure, we're also throwing in race cards and parking in the Members' car park.

With all the best hospi-

Arabs buy Palace

GODOLPHIN have announced numerous new recruits for next season, including Racing Post Trophy winner Palace Episode.

The Kevin Ryan-trained juvenile was an impressive winner of the Doncaster Group One last month and is now set to join Sheikh Mohammed's operation for an undisclosed sum.

Another high-profile purchase is the ex-Italian-trained Electrocutist, winner of the Juddmonte International Stakes at York in August.

The four-year-old was last seen finishing third in the Canadian International. Winged Cupid, who finished a length and a half behind Palace Episode in the Racing Post Trophy, will also join the 'boys in blue'. He will leave the care of Mark Johnston, as will Stepping Up, a nine-length winner on his debut in a Newcastle maiden in September.

Trainer Saeed bin Suroor will have his Classic ranks swelled even further as Godolphin have also struck a deal to buy Jeff Smith's Opera Cape.

The Barathea colt lifted the Solaris Stakes before going on to be placed in Group One company on two occasions, rounding off with third place in the Dewhurst Stakes.

Smith has also sold his St Leger runner-up The Gezer to Godolphin.

Royal Lodge Stakes winner Leo, formerly with John Gosden, has also joined the Newmarket operation.
